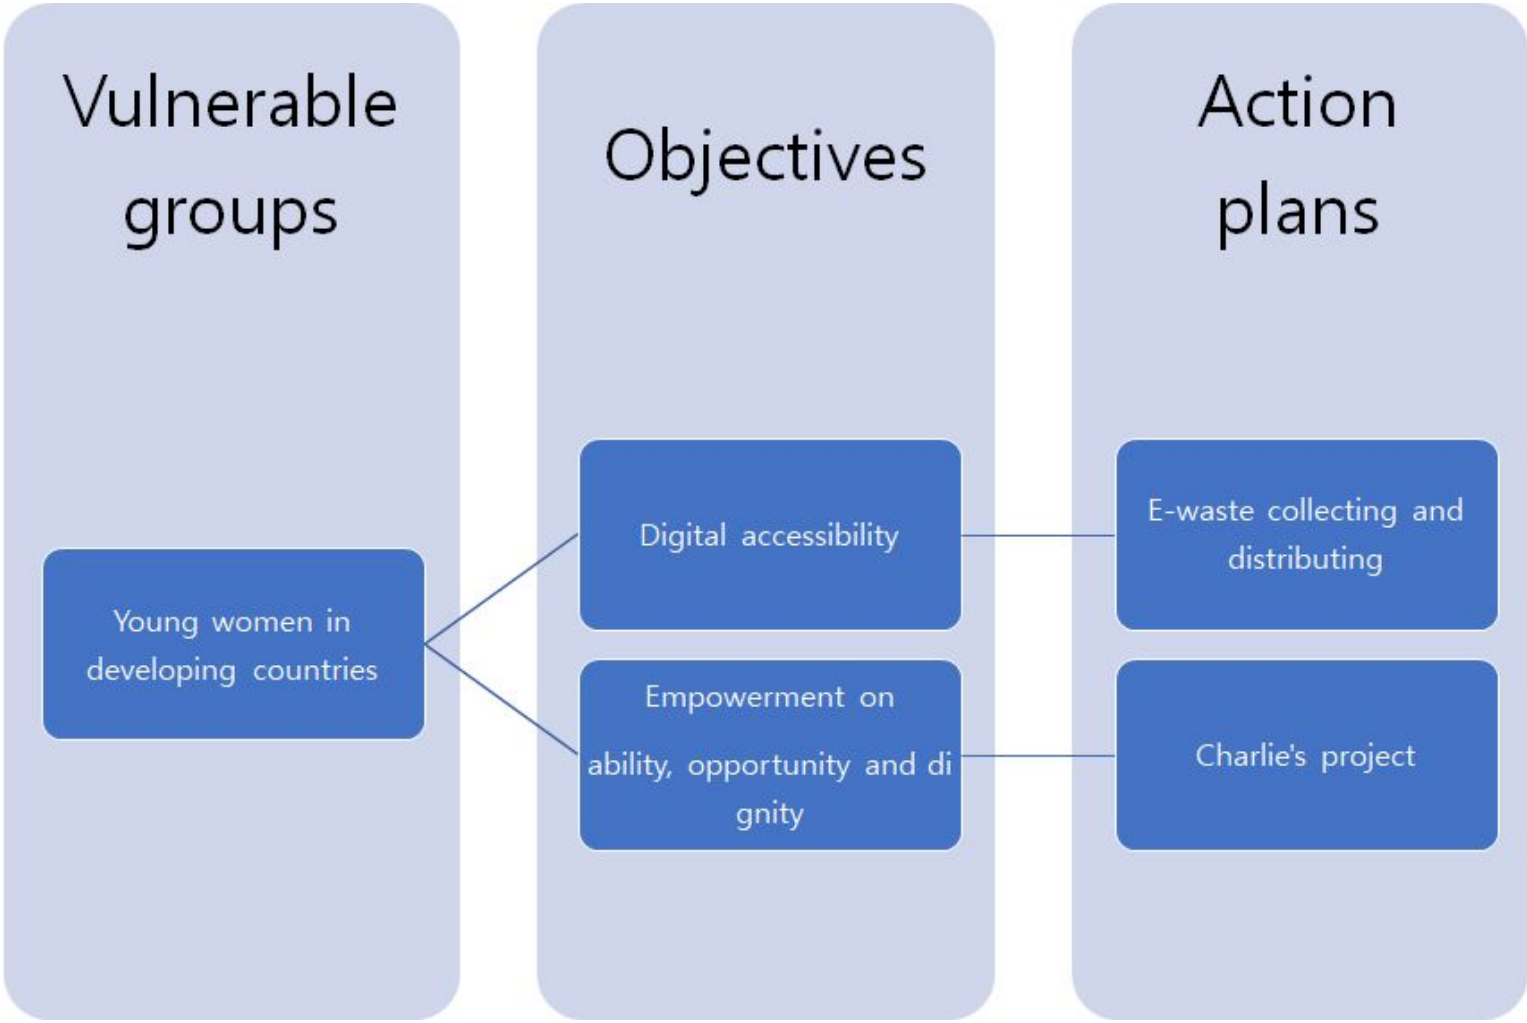
Government Innovation for Social Inclusion of Vulnerable Groups

Finale & Farmacists

Gender equality and empowerment of women through ICT



Vulnerable groups
Objectives
Action plans
Young women in developing countries
Digital accessibility
Empowerment on ability, opportunity and di gnity
E-waste collecting and distributing
Charlie's project

Objectives

80% of youth are in developing countries,

Young women as especially vulnerable to digital transformation and empowerment.

Gender equality and ICT

Targeting female youth of developing nations

Empowering ability, opportunity and dignity

Project Idea: E-Waste & E-learning

<key points>
Digital devices education + Legal Education + Rights Education

- educational content: launched in the devices
- e-learning for COVID-19 pandemic

<Planning>
design program with Charlie members

<Implementing>

1. collect e-waste (used digital devices) from developed nations
2. repair the digital devices
3. distribute them to young women in developing countries

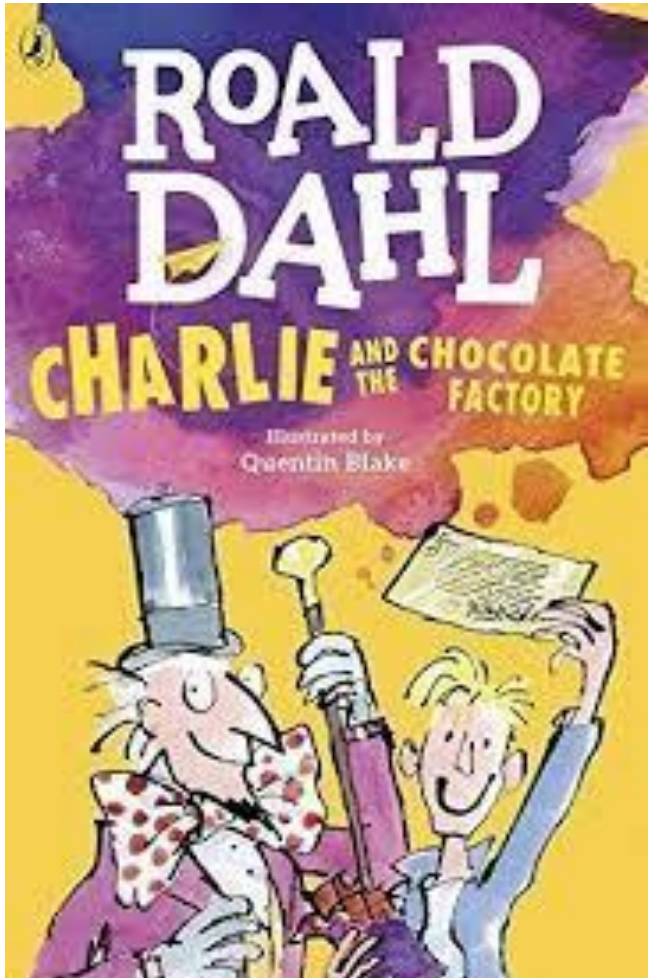
<Adjusting>
after distributing, making consistent education communities, adjusting program responding to Charlie members feedback



ROALD DAHL
CHARLIE AND THE CHOCOLATE FACTORY
Illustrated by
Quentin Blake

Charlie Project: Including the Vulnerable Groups in Policy Making

1) Planning : Find Charlies: young women in poverty (chosen according to application essay <THE GOLDEN TICKET>, asserting their passion to make social change)
-
2) Implementing:
   - Policy-making suggested by Charlies while working with government officials

(Policies cover a variety of themes, ranging from renewable energy, everyday problems, changes that they deem necessary in their lives)

- Qualitative research constructed by Charlies (accurate, timely recognition about charlie community)

3) Adjusting: Monitoring and evaluating what changes Charlies have made

Expected Results

- Reduce the digital divide: giving accessibility and accelerating digital transformation

- Educate young vulnerable women

- Reduce climate change: environmental changes accelerating, impacting vulnerable groups

- Start with young women -> affect the whole society (bring change in developing countries)

- Ultimately, it will include inclusion of ALL vulnerable groups → empowering ABILITY, OPPORTUNITY, DIGNITY → SOCIAL INCLUSION!!!!!